

President of Zhuhai Branch

Mr. Peter Y K Siu

Congratulations on the 11th anniversary of the establishment of the HKIOE

After ten years of hard work, ten years of glory, through one spring and autumn after another, on the occasion of the 11th anniversary of the official establishment of the 『 Hong Kong Institute of Environmentalists 』 , I would like to express warm congratulations on behalf of the 『 Hong Kong Institute of Environmentalists- Zhuhai Branch 』 .

The 『 Hong Kong Institute of Environmentalists 』 is the lifeblood of life. Over the past decade, the HKIOE's Engineers, as a professional environmental planning team in the field of the environment, has played a vital role in environmental planning and a series of special environmental planning, providing key intellectual support. At the same time, our team continues to grow, the quality of capacity continues to improve, the system is constantly improving, in environmental policy, engineering consulting and international cooperation and other fields, to undertake a number of national scientific research topics and a number of major international conferences, won wide acclaim and recognition in the industry.

In china's environmental protection cause is full of hope. The State Council will issue opinions on strengthening the key work of environmental protection, and will also issue the national environmental protection cause and make a comprehensive deployment of environmental protection work in the future. We hope that we will make further efforts to forge ahead, speed up the construction of innovative systems and high-end personnel training, create first-class environmental planning and scientific research, for active exploration, with low cost, good efficiency, low emissions, sustainable environmental protection new road, the cause of environmental protection to a new stage to make greater contributions!

On behalf of the 『 Hong Kong Institute of Environmentalists-Zhuhai Branch 』 , I would like to thank you sincerely for your support, and finally, we have celebrated our 11th birthday together with the 『 Hong Kong Institute of Environmentalists 』
